Christmas Festivities

On Christmas Eve the families of our church Dios de Amor (God of Love) came together for a time of fellowship. On a crispy-cold evening a typical meal of tamales and a hot punch was very welcome. The children enjoyed themselves with a piñata filled with sweets, although when this burst open I am sure we saw many adults scrambling for the sweets on the ground! Later, Christa and pastor Miriam handed out Christmas gifts to the young children and it was wonderful to see their faces light up as they opened them up. We must remember that many of these kids do not get Christmas gifts. Thank you to everyone who contributed to this celebration.

Volcano Kids

We were also able to purchase Christmas gifts for some of the children of the survivors from the volcano disaster back in June last year. Here are some photos of them with their gifts.

Beds & Mattresses Purchased

With your donations we were able to purchase 6 double and 2 single beds, mattresses and blankets for some of the survivors of the volcano disaster. Up and until this date these families were sleeping on a concrete floor, some without covers. They are extremely grateful, and, of course, the Gospel has been shared and Bibles handed out.

Christa Helping the local YWAM

We have very good contact with the local YWAM Team, and this month Christa was asked to interpret in a conference over a few days for a visiting couple Rick & Karin Alegretto from YWAM Texas.

A Hard Life – Urgent Help Needed!

We have a Guatemalan mother, Wendy, with three children whose husband has deserted her. We were shocked to see the conditions she and the children are living under. One pair of worn-out trousers, one pair of shoes that are too small, one shirt – that’s all the clothes the oldest son (13) owns! Wendy does her best to survive on pittance pay which has to also pay for the rent. Now she has been informed that her hours of work will be cut in half. It will now be impossible for her to survive, and Government help does not exist. We have given some financial help to cover her for a couple of weeks, but what she truly needs is a church or group to sponsor the family each month. This can be done through us, and we will keep the sponsor informed with photos and updates. The sum needed to survive is $390 (€375, £300) If the Lord is speaking to you to help this family, please email us and let us know and send your monthly donation to the address below marked “Wendy.”
